Safety First

Communications with parents in an emergency

- The schools' primary focus is the safety of students and staff. In the event of an emergency, the schools will not respond to any information requests nor will they send any information to parents.
- The District scolaire francophone Sud will communicate with parents via emails, text messages, the website, or local media.
- Please be aware that not all details can be disclosed, as doing so may compromise the safety of those involved or interfere with ongoing investigations.
- After an incident, additional information will be shared, and follow-ups will be done directly with the families involved through the appropriate channels.

Is your contact information up to date?

- Parents and guardians receive information through the contact details provided to the school at the beginning of the school year via the student's information sheet.
- It is the responsibility of parents and guardians to keep this information updated throughout the school year.
- If any contact information changes during the year, please inform the school.

The contact details on the student's information sheet will be used to contact parents or guardians in case of an emergency.
